Apply online (http://nankai.17gz.org), register your own ID, then fill out the application online.(the system has both English and Chinese versions) Please ensure that the information provided online should be correct specifically and check your name, date of birth, passport number and study period, as all subsequent documents will be prepared based on the information provided. 2. Scan and upload the following documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The home page of your passport ● A recent digital photo ● Certificate of enrollment at your current university/institute ● Nomination letter ● Recommendation letter ● Official transcripts ● Study plan in Nankai University (English/Chinese version) Reminder: Do not need send hard copy this year, please upload documents to online application system.
Visa Types	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Type1: X1; Issued to those who intend to study in China for a period of more than 180 days. (extendable upon arrival and change to residence permit within 30 days from their arrival in China) ● Type2: X2; Issued to those who intend to study in China for a period of no more than 180 days. (extendable for once, single entry)
Suggestions and Reminders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Acceptance letter will be sent to Partner University/Institute within about 15 working days after online application finished ● The transcript and certificate of enrollment must be provided by the university/Institute/school and must be stamped with the official stamp or the responsible person's signature. The letter of recommendation must have the full name and contact information of the one who writes it. ● It is recommended to bring at least CNY 1000 in cash, as it will be needed for the taxi ride to the school and the dormitory deposit. ● Students who come to NKU through an exchange program do not need to pay tuition fee at any school. If there are any questions please consult with the International Students' Office. ● Please keep in mind that exchange students need to purchase Chinese Medical Insurance(来华保险). Compensation from foreign-based insurance can take longer than from local-based insurance, and because the Chinese medical system requires payment before administering treatment, delays in compensation can have serious ramifications in the event of serious injury. In line with this new policy, students arriving in China will be asked to apply for Chinese Medical Insurance through Nankai University within their first week in the country. The insurance fee is 500CNY for six months or 1000CNY for a year. For those who would like more specific information about the Chinese Medical Insurance, please follow the link: <http://www.lxbx.net>

- In order to transfer credits to your home university, students need to apply to get transcripts at the end of semester, and then need to get their official transcripts from the International Students' Section before leaving China.
- We open most of our Chinese-taught courses to international students. (In order to get your credit, you can choose at most two majors, one of which would count as your main major; you can also take two more classes in other colleges, each class 2 credits, a total of 4 credits.) For candidates who would like to take courses in colleges other than at the College of Chinese Language and Culture, a minimum of an HSK level 4 is required. Your HSK certificate will need to be submitted in our online application system, or If you don't have an HSK certificate, please upload a Chinese proficiency certificate that has been recognized by your university or your department with a stamp. This should include the student's name and passport number as well as an explanation about his/her Chinese proficiency.
