SUFE SHORT FACTS

Shanghai University of Finance and Economics (SUFE) was founded in 1917 and has become the top university specialized in economics and business.

Consistently ranked among China's best universities focusing on finance and management, SUFE is one of the most established and comprehensive providers of business and management education in China and Asia. Our programmes, responding closely to the industry and community needs, have nurtured generations of business leaders and prominent scholars both for China and the world. The increasing recognition of our excellence in research and teaching has integrated SUFE to a wider academic community. With generations of dedicated efforts, SUFE now has become a premier university whose rigorous, high-impact, and interdisciplinary research addresses issues of local and global relevance.

Figures

SUFE has 18,299 students in 2026, with undergraduates accounting over 8,000 and international students exceeding 1,000. SUFE has around 900 full-time faculty, 40 undergraduate programmes and 180 postgraduate programmes.

SUFE has established partnership with over 200 universities/institutions, spanning 42 countries and regions. Among the partners, around 100 are running exchange programmes with SUFE.
