Course selection	Course selection Students can choose courses from various programs, across all semesters, including both undergraduate and graduate levels. Master programs are open to international students. However, please note that most classes are held on Saturdays from 8:00 am- to 12:00 and weekday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., as many Colombian graduate students work during the day and can only attend classes during these times.
