ACADEMIC INFORMATION

ACADEMIC SEMESTER INFORMATION

Universidad de Lima has two regular academic semester:

- First semester: March to July
- Second semester: August to December

Degree programs generally consist of 10 academic levels, with students completing two levels per year.

COURSE WORKLOAD

3-4 hours per week (class hours).
Attendance is mandatory.

CREDIT SYSTEM

One Ulima credit is equivalent to sixteen (16) hours of theoretical instruction or thirty-two (32) hours of practical instruction. Each instructional hour lasts fifty (50) minutes, and each semester consists of 16 weeks of classes.

Courses may carry between 2 and 6 credits, depending on their level of difficulty. The Ulima credit is different from the ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System). Please note that at Ulima, non-instructional hours associated with a course are not included in the credit calculation.

GRADING SYSTEM

The grading system ranges from 0 to 20. Any grade below 11 is considered a failing grade.

ECTS GRADE EQUIVALENCY TABLE

	FAIL	PASS	NOTABLE	OUTSTANDING	EXCEPTIONAL*
ECTS	FAIL (F) Considerable further work is required. FAIL (FX) Some more work required before the credit can be awarded.	SUFFICIENT (E) Performance meets the minimum criteria. SATISFACTORY (D) Fair but with significant shortcomings.	GOOD (C) Generally sound work with a number of notable errors.	VERY GOOD (B) Above the average standard but with some errors.	EXCELLENT (A) Outstanding performance with only minor errors.
PERU	0-10,9	11-13,9	14-16,9	17-18,9	19-20

ISSUANCE OF TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts are sent to students about one week after the end of the semester.

COURSE REGISTRATION

Students will receive assistance with course selection during the registration process. Students may withdraw from courses only during the first week of classes. Adding courses after the registration period will not be permitted.

HEALTH INSURANCE INFORMATION

Mandatory Health Insurance

Before their arrival, students must submit a copy of their international health insurance policy purchased in their home country, covering their entire stay in Peru (from the date of their arrival in Lima until their return date to their home country).

The insurance policy must include outpatient care, hospitalization, and repatriation services, with direct billing at private clinics in Peru. It must also clearly specify the policy's coverage dates.

Students should check with their insurance provider to determine which private clinics in Peru they can visit, if necessary.

VISA INFORMATION

Exchange students must enter Peru as tourists.

Once in Lima, Universidad de Lima will provide the necessary information and guidance to apply to the National Superintendence of Migration of Peru (Superintendencia Nacional de Migraciones del Perú) for a change of immigration status to:

- Temporary Student Status: for stays of up to 180 days.
- Resident Student Status: for stays of up to 1 academic year.

When should the process be initiated?

Students must initiate the process within the first 60 days after their arrival in Lima, while their tourist status is still valid.

What Documents Are Required?

To initiate the process, students must have the following documents:

- Proof of payment for the immigration procedure.
- Sworn statement of financial solvency for their stay in Peru.
- Sworn statement declaring that they have no criminal, police, or judicial records.
- Enrollment certificate issued by Universidad de Lima.

IMPORTANT

- The Temporary Student Status is initially granted for 90 days and may be extended for an additional 90 days. This allows students to remain in Peru for an approximate period of 180 days.
- Students are responsible for submitting all necessary documentation on time and in full before the established deadlines.
- If a student decides to extend their exchange program for an additional semester, they must immediately notify internacional@ulima.edu.pe to initiate the process of renewing their immigration status.
- Universidad de Lima will provide the necessary information and guidance to complete this process with the National Superintendence of Migration (Migraciones).

ACCOMMODATION INFORMATION

As Universidad de Lima does not provide on-campus accommodation, students may choose from the accommodation options included in the list that the Office of Internationalization will share with them. Students may also request assistance if needed.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

AIRPORT PICKUP SERVICE

We provide a free airport pickup service on students' arrival day. We will contact students two weeks prior to their arrival to arrange this service.

PALS PROGRAM

Each international student will be supported before and during their exchange by a PALS partner, who will assist with their cultural and academic integration. The program includes help with course registration and guidance on using the Ulima App and the Blackboard platform.

Objectives:

- Support exchange students in adapting to academic life and the Ulima campus.
- Provide an opportunity for both students to practice a foreign language.
- Promote cultural exchange by encouraging students to learn about different languages, customs, and traditions.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

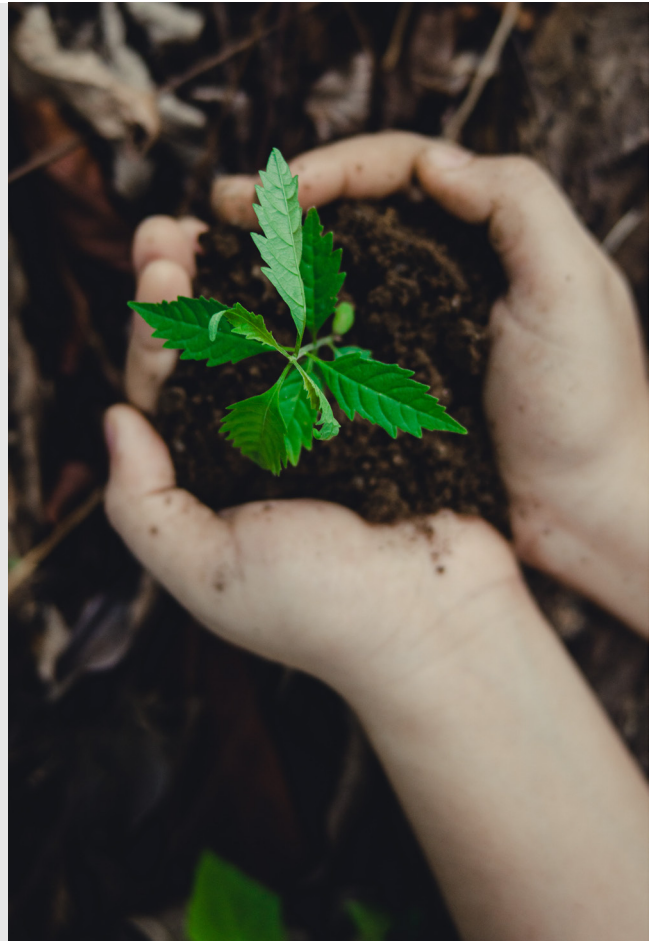

Exchange students will have the opportunity to participate in the University's social responsibility projects through the Sustainability Center, in collaboration with partner institutions. For more information, click here.

- Huellas de esperanza

Important:

- To register for any volunteer program, students must be enrolled in at least nine credits.
- Upon completing the selected program, volunteers will receive a certificate of participation after being evaluated by the coordinator.
- The University may record and photograph activities, as well as collect testimonials for future programs.
