Courses
Study program:	SGH has non-faculty structure (subject to change into three schools structure), offering programmes at all three levels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • undergraduate (Bachelor's) – 180 ECTS, • graduate (Master's) – 120 ECTS and • doctoral (PhD) – 3-4 years. The offer for exchange students include subjects at undergraduate and graduate level from SGH existing majors including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Analytics-Big Data, • Business Administration, • Corporate Financial Management, • E-business, Economics, • Economic Analysis of Law, • Finance & Accounting, • Global Business, Finance and Governance, • International Business, • International Economics, • International Tourism, Hotel Industry and Leisure Services, • Management, • Project Management, • Public Policy, • Quantitative Methods in Economics and Information Systems. Exchange students may also take selected courses offered within CEMS Master in International Management courses, courses in German of the German-Polish Academic Forum. Those students who speak Polish may attend all courses offered at SGH at the given level. Students may only take courses from the level they are registered at. The exception may be offered only to those students who submit a request from their home university indicating that the course from the other level is necessary to validate a semester abroad in their home school.
Courses:	Current list of courses is available in ECTS Booklet, complemented by International Student Handbook that include all relevant info concerning credits, grading, system of studies etc. Both guides are available for download at: http://administracja.sgh.waw.pl/en/cpm/international_exchange/incoming_students/informations/
Academic / Experience Requirements:	Selected courses may require prerequisites indicated in the course outlines in Virtual Dean's Office
Full-time Workload:	To validate a semester an exchange student should pass 30 ECTS credits, but the workload depends on home school requirements. One full course (30 contact hours) equals to 3 ECTS credits. Free-movers must take at least 21 ECTS in courses.
Learning Expectations:	Format of courses vary. Mostly these are combination of lecture, and tutorials with case analysis. Participation and attendance is evaluated on professor's perception. Maximum number of students admitted to a course is between 30 and 40 and there is higher limit for lectures and core major courses.
Grading:	The grades are from 2.0 (Fail) till 5.0 (Very Good). 3.0 is a minimum Pass. 4.0 is a good, average grade. The transcripts are issued after the semester and contain information about the grading system (ECTS Grading Table). Next, transcripts are sent to the partner schools. Grading scale is available in the bottom of this document.

Exams:	Exams are usually held at the end of the course or during exam session periods. Most exams are written; several courses include group projects and individual essays instead of formal written exams.
Collegia: (research units headed by Deans and composed of chairs and institutes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business Administration • Economic Analysis • Management and Finance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Socio-Economics • World Economy
Languages
Language of instruction:	Majority of courses is offered in Polish, but students may complete a full semester or academic year in English, since SGH offers full-time BA and MA programmes in English in selected majors as well as part-time PhD programme in Management and Economics in English.
Language requirement:	The partner school must ensure the candidate has appropriate proficiency in English (or Polish) at least at the level of B2 in the CEFR scale. It means that we require as minimum: CAE (C), TOEFL iBT 79, IELTS 6.0, LCCI Level 3 (Pass), TOEIC – 750 or the confirmation from partner school that the student is demonstrating equivalent proficiency.
Language courses:	All exchange students may attend classes of Polish for beginners. Upon request (and with permission of SGH Centre for Foreign Languages) students may join our language tutorials (German, English, French, Russian, Italian, Spanish, and Italian). For more advanced we may offer: intermediate Polish and Advanced Polish (Business Polish).

Practical information – studying and living in Warsaw
Orientation	Orientation takes place in a week before the beginning of classes. The orientation is not obligatory but strongly recommended and includes cross-cultural training. Exact dates are given in the calendar part.
Facilities	SGH offers the exchange students the access to SGH library (Central Economic Library in Poland) with reading hall, periodicals library and media services (Pro-Quest data base etc.). Computer labs are located in various places of the school, but students may use their own notebooks by plugging-in in designated areas or using the WiFi network available on campus using Microsoft Office Suite for PC/Mac/mobile. Students may also join selected Physical Education classes and the Sauna. SGH facilities also include banking services (account opening, ATM's), several student clubs with food & snacks, photocopying services. Grocery shops and other facilities are located close to SGH buildings.
Student Services	Each student has assigned a “buddy” – SGH student who assists exchange students especially during the first weeks of stay at SGH. CEMS Club and Erasmus Student Network are also organizing trips to Polish cities and neighbourhood countries, international dinners, celebration of typical Polish holidays etc. Other activities may include skiing trips, sailing & canoeing camps. SGH also has active student organisations that are willing to involve exchange students (AIESEC, student unions, sports academic clubs etc.)
Internships	Internships are not obligatory at SGH (except students of CEMS and selected majors) but Centre assists students in finding the internship on request.
Career services	SGH Career Centre publishes job and internship offers on its Career Portal available to all registered students (using login and password). In case of CEMS students they may seek assistance in finding internships, business projects or job offers of CEMS Corporate Relations Manager.
Exchange Coordinator Services	The Centre is fully responsible for the overall exchange at SGH, except course scheduling, registration and transcripts that are issued by the relevant dean's office.

Grading table

From 2012/2013 academic year, SGH has changed its grading scale by deleting the 5.5 (the highest) grade. Therefore, the grading percentage of current 5.0 grade represents accumulated percentage of former 5.0 and 5.5 grades. The ECTS grading table that reflects the actual distribution of grades under new system has been updated in May 2013.

In a new system, the grading scale used at SGH from 2012/2013 ranges from 2.0 to 5.0.

- 5.0 is the highest grade and the lowest passing grade is 3.0.
- 4.0 is the norm for a good pass.
