INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS

EBS AUTUMN SCHOOL
Short description	The European Business Skills Autumn school is a one week project organized at the Faculty of Business in Cluj-Napoca in partnership with Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences. The key focus in this Winter School are Europe's emerging markets. Selected lecturers and students from the Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences, the Netherlands and students from the Babeş-Bolyai University in Romania welcome international students to participate. Besides competitive edge classes around emerging markets, the course includes study visits to IT and outsourcing companies and an introductory class to Romanian culture. Of course there is enough time to join social and cultural events in Cluj-Napoca, the countries second most popular city, also known as Romania's technopolis. Fine food, monuments and the local moderate prices make Cluj-Napoca attractive.
Time period	End of October
No. of participants	Aprox. 40
Credits	5 ECTS
Transylvania International Business Summer School
Short description	Transylvania International Business Summer School is a short-term programme focusing on Marketing, Branding, Leadership and HRM topics. It is an excellent opportunity to gain 5 ECTS but also experience one of Europe's most beautiful regions! It brings together experts from the business environment and leading university scholars offering participants a business-applied insight. Students will have to work on business-related projects and attend company visits and lectures.
Time period	July
No. of participants	Aprox. 30
Credits	3 ECTS
Business Carrousel
Short description	Business Carrousel is 2 weeks project organized with our partner Christian University Ede, The Netherlands. The business carrousel involves 50 students, 5 companies along with 5 top managers, 1 hour per company spend by the students. The students will be split up in teams of 5, combining 1 person from the participating countries, so none of the teams will have 2 members from the same country. The managers will have allocated one room and within an hour they will spend time with 2 teams of students, which then the next hour will go to the next manager, but one team shall not meet again into the same room a team with they already shared one manager. The main added value of this project is the use of business carrousel as a learning tool and teaching method. The carrousel in our view is a powerful learning tool because it involves the personal contact with top managers from enterprises, the students will have to be in charge in order to extract useful information for them to be able to write the report, they will have to use wisely their time and prepare carefully their questions to the managers, as well as quickly adapt to new situations, if the case and to be competitive, as well as to collaborate with other teams, if the case. The main task after the carrousel, which is a tool, not a mean in itself is to create a report in their teams about Sustainable Business Models, which will include: literature review, study case on the companies presented at the business carrousel and comparison with their competitors.

Time period	Beginning of November
No. of participants	Aprox. 50
Credits	5 ECTS
International Business Week
Short description	Every year the Faculty of Business organizes an International Business Week, dedicated to both bachelor and master's level students. Partner companies from the business environment teach classes and workshops to the pre-selected students. After one week of intensive programme alongside with top managers, students have to hand in a project related to each edition's focus/main theme. Successfully passing the project leads to them getting invited to open doors, recruiting events of the companies.
Time period	November
No. of participants	40
Credits	No ECTS
