Nomination and Application	Students need to be nominated by their home institution through our nomination and application platform, Mobility-Online. Email nominations are no longer accepted. The link to the platform changes each academic year and will be provided to all partner institutions. Should you not receive the nomination link, or have any related inquiries, please contact the ZHAW SML International Office at incoming.area1.sml@zhaw.ch. Once nominated and approved, students will receive a welcome email containing a link to complete their application on Mobility-Online. Please ensure that the completed application is submitted by the deadlines below.
Deadlines	Nomination deadline	Fall Semester: 15 May / Spring Semester: 15 October
	Application deadline	Fall Semester: 31 May / Spring Semester: 20 October
	Late nominations for students not requiring a visa might be accepted after consulting with the International Office.
Language Requirements (English and/or German)	The expected language proficiency level is B2+ (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). While a B2+ level is sufficient for admission, a C1 level for modules taught in German is strongly recommended. Applicants must provide official certification of their English or German language skills. The ZHAW SML accepts only the following certificates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- TOEFL iBT 83 and iBT Home (valid for 2 years)</li> <li>- IELTS 5.5 (valid for 2 years)</li> <li>- Cambridge First (FCE)</li> <li>- TOEIC Listening and Reading (combined score 450)</li> <li>- Cambridge Advanced (CAE)</li> <li>- Official confirmation letter of language proficiency from home institution</li> <li>- Cambridge Business (BEC)</li> <li>- Successfully completed International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma in English</li> <li>- Cambridge Linguaskill (min B2)</li> <li>- Duolingo min. 115 (valid for 2 years)</li> </ul>
Further Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- A minimum of two completed semesters prior to the start of the exchange (at bachelor's level)</li> <li>- No minimum GPA required</li> </ul>
Module Registration	Students should independently review the academic year's module offerings and check the syllabi to ensure their preferred modules meet the home institution's requirements. The module registration is finalized during the Orientation Week, with the opportunity to modify the selection during the add and drop period at the start of the first week of classes. Module placements cannot be confirmed before the final module registration. ➔ The module offer for the current academic year can be accessed here

Visa and Health Insurance
Visa and Residence Permit	Non-EU citizens need a student visa and must apply early (immediately after receiving their letter of acceptance). Students from Australia, Japan, New Zealand, Malaysia, Singapore, and the United Kingdom do not need a visa, but they must apply for an assurance of residence permit (called “Zusicherung der Aufenthaltsbewilligung”) through the SML International Office. All exchange students must apply for a residence permit (L-Permit) upon arrival. Applications for both the visa and residence permit require proof of financial means (minimum of CHF 1,750 monthly). The International Office will provide detailed guidance on the visa or residence permit once the application process is finalized.
Health Insurance	Basic health insurance is mandatory by law in Switzerland and can be obtained after the student’s arrival. Detailed information will be provided during Orientation Week. Non-EU residents must purchase Swiss health insurance (plans starting as low as CHF 61 per month); international health insurance obtained in the student’s home country is usually not sufficient. EU residents with EHIC cards or UK residents with GHIC cards are exempt from this obligation. They need to submit a waiver to the Swiss Healthcare Organization.
