Courses

Course Selection

There are several course selection phases in each semester. The first online selection will start two weeks before class begins.

Areas of Study Open for EXCHANGE Students

All fields are open to exchange students as long as the student has adequate Chinese proficiency. Otherwise, students can only take courses offered in English. Students are allowed to choose courses from different departments/colleges and levels. Some graduate level courses are not open to undergraduate students.

Credit and Grading System

Every 18 hours is counted as 1 credit. If the total class hour during a semester is 54 hours, the course will be a 3-credit course.

Grade	A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+
Grade point	4.3	4.0	3.7	3.3	3.0	2.7	2.3
Grade	C	C-	D	E	F	X
Grade point	2.0	1.7	1.0	0.8	0	0

Graduate student: B- is the passing grade

Undergraduate student: C- is the passing grade

Minimum credits to obtain: 3 credits

Maximum credits to obtain: 15 credits for graduate students

25 credits for undergraduate students

Chinese Language Courses

*We offer 4hrs Mandarin courses per week without charge for exchange students; the course is a 3-credit course. Students must apply for the Chinese language course at time of exchange program application.

Students who have learned Chinese before and wish to enroll in Chinese language course are required to take placement tests upon arrival. The Chinese Language Center will arrange students to appropriate levels according to the test results.

Preparatory Language Course for Incoming Students: Students could choose to join the fee-paying program offered by the Chinese Language Center - <https://clc.nsysu.edu.tw/?Lang=en>

Visa

All students must apply a visa to enter Taiwan with their admission letter. For one-semester students, they need to apply for a Visitor Visa. After their entry to Taiwan, they need to extend the visa for another 60/90 days prior to the expiration date. For students staying for a full academic year, they must obtain a Resident Visa, and they are required to apply for an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) within 15 days after their arrival.

Please refer to the websites of the Taiwanese embassy in each country for further details.

Health Examination

All students must take a medical examination before arrival. One-semester students are required to complete the Health Certificate Form C and a copy of the report must be submitted upon registration. One-year students are required to complete the Health Certificate Form B in order to apply for a Resident Visa to enter Taiwan.

Arrival and Orientation

Students should arrive at NSYSU 5 days before the class begins.

The orientation and the campus tour are usually held on the Friday before class begins and they are mandatory for all exchange students to attend.

Health Insurance and Facilities

All exchange students are required to join the NSYSU Student Group Insurance and purchase travel insurance with medical and accident policies before their arrival.

Students staying for one academic year are required to join the National Health Insurance, starting from the 6th month they receive their Alien Resident Certificate.

Health Facilities at the University: Family Medicine Clinic / Health Division / Counselling Division
