III. ACCEPTANCE & VISA

All exchange students will require a student visa to study at Kent State University if they do not hold U.S. citizenship. Upon admission to Kent State University, students will receive an admission letter and a Form DS-2019 which will be mailed to their home institution's international office. The DS-2019 will allow the student to apply for a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa to study in the United States.

Students are individually responsible for applying in a timely manner for their own student visa. Students are required to pay the SEVIS fee before scheduling a visa appointment. The SEVIS number and program number are required to make a visa appointment; this information can be found on the DS-2019. For updated information on U.S. student visa requirements, please review the website of the United States Department of State: <http://travel.state.gov/content/visas/en.html>.

Students are responsible for registering as a full-time student and abiding by the requirements set forth by the United States Department of State to maintain visa status.

IV. ARRIVAL

DATE OF ARRIVAL

Students must arrive to the U.S. on or before the Program Start Date listed on their DS-2019 to avoid being denied entry to the U.S. Students may arrive up to 30 days before the Program Start Date.

MANDATORY IMMUNIZATIONS

Kent State University Health Services requires all international students to submit an immunization form showing proof of the MMR vaccination and a tuberculosis screening test (TB test – Mantoux type). To download the form and for additional information, please visit: <https://www.kent.edu/uhs/mandatory-immunizations>. The completed form may be e-mailed to immunizations@kent.edu or submitted to DeWeese Health Center upon arrival to campus.

For more information, please see: <https://www.kent.edu/globaleducation/insurance-and-immunization>.

Please note that the above premium rates are based on the 2020/2021 policy period and will be updated in late Summer 2021 for the 2021/2022 Academic Year.

VII. ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Kent State will guarantee on-campus housing for all approved exchange students who complete the required housing application procedures. We do not recommend seeking off-campus housing, as availability is very low and highly competitive, getting to classes can be more difficult, and living off-campus does not provide the kind of immersive student experience that exchange students should have.

Students can only apply for housing after being officially accepted by Kent State as an exchange student. Delaying the application for housing can significantly impact a student's opportunity to receive on-campus housing. Information about on-campus housing and all available residence halls can be found at the following website <https://www.kent.edu/housing>.

Students will need their FlashLine username and password to submit a housing application. Instructions for logging into FlashLine and setting up their student account will be included in the admission letter. Students will be required to pay a $200 housing deposit. Please note that when signing the housing agreement, the student is entering into a legally binding contract.

Kent State has 25 residence halls with a variety of room types and communities. Each hall is overseen by a full-time, professional Residence Hall Director. All residence halls are smoke-free, secured with electronic locks on all entrance doors and student rooms, and all have free laundry machines and wireless connectivity. Many also have computer labs and dining facilities. Detailed information about on-campus housing and all available residence halls can be found at the following website: <https://www.kent.edu/housing/residence-halls>.

VIII. INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION:

The Kent State Office of Global Education will provide an International Student Orientation each semester for incoming exchange students. The orientation program aims to introduce you to the staff at the Office of Global Education, the University, policies and requirements, the local area, and to helpful resources. When you are admitted to Kent State University, you will receive information about transportation from the airport, check-in procedures, and the orientation date/time. Attendance at the orientation is mandatory.

IX. COURSE REGISTRATION

Students can view the list of courses offered at Kent State by clicking on this link and following the prompts: https://keys.kent.edu:44220/ePROD/bwckctlg.p_disp_dyn_ctlg.
